VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Today is the big day. Hear the speeches of the senatorial candidates.

A lady says the trip around the world was fine.

Wintrop daughters will meet with Miss Gertrude Reeder Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Senator Smith's supporters in Newberry are arranging to ride him on a bale of cotton to the speaking. The wagon is to be decorated with signs.

In the large list of corporations failing to pay the license fee, as published by the comptroller general, there is none from Newberry.

A blush is sometimes the hand writing of nature to show that modesty and purity dwells within.—Spartanburg Journal. Glad to hear that, as some people think it a sign of guilt.

The breeze by the electric fans at the Arcade comes from ice in the back end of the building—ice from the Farmers Oil mill. Leslie looks to the comfort of the crowds.

The Woman's Home and Foreign missionary society of the Church of the Redeemer will meet at the home of Mrs. E. R. Hipp next Monday afternoon, July 14, at 5:30 o'clock.

Postmaster J. W. Dunovant underwent a slight operation at Magdalene hospital this morning.—Chester News. Postmaster W. A. Hill underwent the operation of having his salary raised a hundred dollars.

The climate of Georgia and South Carolina was almost tropical several million years ago.—News paragraph. Needn't go that far back. It is wasn't tropical here during the late hot spell we don't want to feel the real thing.

The postmaster of another town sends word to The Herald and News is not deliverable to a certain colored subscriber because said subscriber is on the chingang. Good enough reason for the non-delivery of the paper.

We are glad to learn that a bag of salt standing where there is a smell of fish will absorb the aroma.—Chester News. The smell of stale fish is not pleasant "aroma," rather a bad odor, but it is good that salt will absorb it.

There was a terrific hail storm extending from Yorkville to Rock Hill and from there to Charlotte last night. The crops are said to be badly damaged.—Chester News, 7th. It was the same in portions of Newberry and other parts of the State.

According to the official reclassification of presidential postage there has been an increase in receipts from the Newberry office sufficiently large to warrant an increase in the salary of Postmaster Hill from $2,300 to $2,500.

At Summer Bros.' clothing store we saw a lot of old papers, among them a deed of 100 acres of land to John Adam Epting, Sr., by his excellency James Glenn, Esq., governor, in 1754. The handwriting, which was beautifully executed, is as plain as when recorded.

When want of beauty of person is combined with a grouchy temperament and overwhelming vanity, you have a combination in woman hateful to gods and men.—Spartanburg Journal. "Ain't it so?" "It sure is." Excuse us, please. Newberry has no such. We have seen them elsewhere.

At a meeting of the State board of medical examiners in Columbia Wednesday a list of those who had successfully passed the examinations was given out. Among the names are the following: J. L. Duckett, Kinards; R. L. Mayes, Newberry; J. K. Wicker, Newberry; C. H. Workman, Chappells.

There will be an all day service at Bethel Baptist church next Sunday, the 12th. The forenoon will be devoted to a Children's Day exercise by the Sunday school. There will be addresses in the afternoon by the following: Messrs J. M. Davis, W. H. Hunt and Dr. E. P. Jones. The public is cordially invited.

A high tribute was paid to a girl in this city by some one who knew her. It was amount in these words: "She is the greatest comfort to her mother, relieving her of much of the house and kitchen work. Then she is handy with the needle and can make garments and keep them in order. She does all this cheerfully without ever uttering a complaint."—Spartanburg

Journal. This fits some Laurens county girls, and no doubt some in Newberry, we are glad to say.

Swell singers and dancers, the Carlton sisters, at the opera house the balance of this week, afternoon and night.

Sudden Death of Colored Woman.
Coroner F. M. Lindsay, accompanied by Mr. J. A. Lindsay, went Wednesday to Mr. Godfrey Harmon's Benfield place in No. 6 township to investigate the sudden death of a colored woman, Frances Gary. The woman had gone Wednesday morning to feed the mule and was shucking corn in the crib when she died. Remaining away so long a search was made for her, when she was found as above stated. From what he saw and heard Coroner Lindsay thought a jury unnecessary, as it was evident death had resulted from natural causes.

Against a Girl of His Own Color.
As The Herald and News goes to press the case of Ben Williams, a young negro of this city, for a criminal assault is being given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate J. C. Sample. Williams was arrested Saturday afternoon by Officer W. S. Melton and jailed, along with a colored woman, Anna Belle Porter, as an accessory to the crime. Williams is alleged to have perpetrated the offense on Friday night and it was against the person of a young girl of his own race, on Col. George Johnstone's place out of town, the parties going there in an automobile.

Change in Date of Meeting.
The Junior Division Missionary society of Central Methodist church has been changed from Saturday July 11, to Friday, July 10. It will meet with Miss Elizabeth White.
Remember the change.

May Tarrant,
Recording Secretary.

Lawn Party.
Misses Lillie Mae and Marie Moore entertained about 75 of their friends at a lawn party on Tuesday evening at their home in the suburbs of the city.

The guests were received at the door by Miss Marie Moore and Mrs. L. I. Blalock. After a short chat the guests were ushered to the lawn where punch was served by Miss Anna Dickert. After changing the couples and entertaining them in various ways, ice cream and cake was served by Misses Mary Wicker, Mary Lou Bullock, Lillie Mae and Estelle Moore.

News From O'Neill.
Special to The Herald and News.

O'Neill, July 9.—There will be exercises by the children and Sunday school of Bethel Baptist church on July 12. Opens at 10:30 o'clock promptly. The public is cordially invited to attend. Dinner on the grounds after which will be several helpful talks on the laymen's movement given by Mr. W. H. Hunt, Dr. Jones and Mr. Davis, all of Newberry.

Death of Mrs. Nolan Riser.
Eunice Riser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burr Connelly, was born April 5, 1897, and died June 29, 1914. She was 17 years, two months and 24 days old. She was married to Nolan Riser December 14, 1913. She leaves behind to mourn her death a husband, father and mother, five sisters, five brothers and a host of relatives and friends.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

N.W. fond parents, cease your mourning!
She is safe in heaven above,
And is basking in the sunlight
Of God's glory and his love.

Sleep on, dear Eunice, and take thy rest,
God called you home. He thought it best.

Her Parents.

All Day Service at Colony.

The Rev. Jno. C. Seegers, D. D., of our Southern Theological seminary, Columbia, will preach at Colony church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The people will gladly hear Dr. Seegers at that time and we take this opportunity to give a hearty invitation to all the members and friends of the church. Dr. Seegers ranks among the best preachers in this country. Do not fail to hear him at that time.

There will be dinner on the ground and fine addresses in the afternoon. Come to this fine occasion with well filled baskets and let us enjoy the day together.

P. E. Shealy,
Pastor.

R. L. C. CONVENTION.
By Uncle Pete.

I left Newberry July 1, for the R. L. C. convention. I stopped over in Laurens. There I saw my old army friend, O. G. Thompson and other friends. I spent the night and was joined the next morning at the depot by T. E. Wicker, W. H. Eddy and Yancy Dickert. We arrived at Spartanburg about 10 o'clock Thursday morning and were met at the depot by H. G. Crim, who gave us a glad hand of welcome. We were carried to the Oregon hotel, where we secured rooms during the meeting. We took a street car for the park where our meeting was to be held. We had the address of welcome and responses and then adjourned for dinner.

In the afternoon the convention got down to business.

In the morning session of the third we were addressed by Hon. F. H. Hyatt, Hon. E. J. Watson, Hon. D. E. Finley and Hon. W. F. Stevenson. In the afternoon we were addressed by Hon. J. T. Johnson.

D. R. Fletcher was reelected president, Thos. A. Black, vice president; C. M. Mack was reelected secretary and treasurer; J. M. Turbeville, B. T. Young and J. T. Holland, executive committee.

The following were elected delegates to the national convention: Horace Crosson, H. G. Crim, D. R. Fletcher, T. E. Wicker, J. E. Johnston.

The next place of meeting will be Florence in 1915. The parting hymn was sung and the convention adjourned.

Spartanburg certainly entertained us handsomely and H. G. Crim did all in his power for the welfare of the carriers. We left Spartanburg over the C. C. and O. railway for Erwin, Tenn., as the guests of the city of Spartanburg. I am not able to describe the scenery on the trip but it is certainly grand and inspiring. We left on the return trip at 5 o'clock and reached Spartanburg at 10 o'clock.

The only carrier who got locked up I am sorry to say that he is from Newberry county. Ask Yancy Dickert what he did for an alarm clock? One of our carriers went to the postoffice and asked for his mail, the postmaster asked for what name. The carrier told him of course his name was on the back of the letter.

The convention was the best we have ever had and our membership has increased 75 per cent. About one-half of the carriers of the State are members now.

We left Spartanburg Sunday morning for home and on reaching Laurens we found we could not leave until 10 o'clock. The writer went to Gray Court with Bro. J. E. Johnston for dinner and we had a dinner long to be remembered. Then we took the train for Newberry and got home at 3:20 o'clock.

W. G. Peterson, T. E. Wicker, Thompson Shealy, W. H. Eddy, Yancy Dickert, B. B. Webb and Thos. Chalmers attended the meeting.

We hope that every carrier in the county will join the association before the meeting in 1915.

Sunday School Workers.

The faculty of the Lutheran Sunday school normal for workers in South Carolina, (a training school for teachers and superintendents of Sunday schools which was in session here this week), was made up almost entirely of Columbians, as follows:

Mrs. E. C. Cronk and Mrs. Bell studies in child life; Mrs. M. O. J. Kreps in charge of the primary Bible study; the Rev. H. A. McCullough a series of talks on methods of teaching junior and senior grades; the Rev. A. G. Voigt, D. D., course of lectures on the Bible with intimate studies of selected sections; the Rev. E. C. Cronk, D. D., course of instruction in missions, Sunday school organization and music in the Sunday school. The Rev. John C. Seegers, D. D., the Rev. John W. Horne, D. D., and the Rev. C. E. Weltner, D. D., lecture Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights, respectively. The Rev. E. J. Sox lecture in the morning.

Personals.

Mr and Mrs. Jones, of Indiana, are visiting Mrs. Jones parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Caldwell.

Misses Sara and Carolyn Caldwell will leave on Monday to spend the summer at Hendersonville.

Newberry county is extremely fortunate. Its present able legislative delegation—Dr. C. T. Wyche, George S. Mower and Arthur Kibler—are all standing for re-election, which means that all of them will be re-elected. Fewer if any counties in the State have stronger representation in the legislature than Newberry county—Greenville Piedmont.
